SUPPORT LETTER TIPS

Please use the ideas and suggestions below as they apply to your trip.

- Put together a large mailing or emailing list, include those outside your Christian circle: people at work, neighbors, business leaders, doctors, etc.
- Take time to put together a well-written, concise letter.
- Speak about your mission location positively.
- Include important info about the trip: dates, cost, goals, etc.
- Be honest and direct asking them to support you through both prayer and financial giving.
- Be clear on your deadline for receiving funds, explain the donation is tax deductible and be clear how they can easily donate.
- Thank your contributors promptly and respond if they have any questions.
- Before the trip, ask your support partners to pray for you.
- After the trip, send a trip recap to both contributors and prayer partners with a photo and additional thank you.
