Further Reflection for 6/2

1. What is the best meal you have had in recent memory? What is the worst meal you've had in recent memory?
2. Read John 6:1-15. What is your main takeaway? Did something stick out to you?
3. Pastor Matt talked about the spiritual hunger of the crowd in this story, and how Jesus was the true satisfaction the people were looking for. What has your experience with spiritual hunger looked like? What does it mean for Jesus to sustain us?
4. Jesus is our example of what it means to be servant hearted leaders. How does Jesus' life and ministry shape the way we meet the physical needs of others in our communities?
5. It says that Jesus had compassion on the crowd. What do you feel compassion for? Who are the people or the needs that you feel a stirring in your heart and gut to serve and love?
6. Jesus was not the kind of King the people thought they wanted. Jesus wanted to redeem and transform lives, not just circumvent political systems. What do you think it would look like for Jesus to be the King in your life, family, community? At this point, would you say that Jesus is your King?
7. What is a next step you can take to grow closer to Christ? What hunger are you looking to satiate? A spiritual hunger, physical hunger/need, or a hunger for power/influence?
