#08 SERMON NOTE 2019

"Is your heart prepare for the Lord?"

(Isaiah 40:3-5)

1. Is the voice inside your heart cry out? Whose voice inside you?
2. For example in Matthew 5:23-24: "So if you are standing before the altar in the Temple, offering a sacrifice to God, and suddenly _____ that a friend has something against you, leave your sacrifice there beside the altar and go and apologize and be reconciled to him, and then come and offer your sacrifice to God."
 - Remember your body is the Temple where the Holy Spirit lives within you. (1 Cor. 3:16)
 - You worship God in the Spirit and in truth. (John 4:24)
 - Let us, then, always offer praise to God as our sacrifice through Jesus, which is the offering presented by (our) lips that confess Him as Lord. (Heb. 13:15)
 - Suddenly, you remember or recall that someone who is against you or who is hurting by what you said or offended. It is the Holy Spirit-the Counselor, Helper, Advocate, & Standby-who brought or popped up this 'person' in your mind. (John 14:26)
 - Sometimes brothers and sisters rebelled against the Holy Spirit and grieved Him. That is why He became their enemy and personally fought against them. (Isaiah 63:10 TLB)
 - It is better to be humble and allow the Holy Spirit works in your life and go to a person and apologize and ask for forgiveness. Be reconciled with the person and make a peace with a person then you made a peace with God.
3. This Isaiah 40:3-4 reveal what is your heart look like:
 - 'In the wilderness' express that you are in the SEASON of _____. This can be a time of testing when God strengthens your faith.
 - 'Make straight in the desert' express 'lonely, no direction, aimlessly, wandering, bareness, no creativity or growth, lack, dry place spiritually'.
 - 'Every valley shall be exalted' express 'depression, walk through the valley of shadow of death or decision, between 2 mountaintop experiences.
 - 'Every mountain and hill shall be made low' express large problem or obstacle, opposition, can't see from a heavenly prospective; a need to remove a small issue in your life, growing in faith through the struggles of life. Sometimes are pride of life, haughtiness.
 - 'The crooked shall be made straight' express a quest to recognize or develop one's self-identity. People asked John the Baptist, "Then who are you? Tell us, so we can give an answer to those who sent us. What do you have to say for yourself?" (John 1:22)
 - 'The rough places plain' express you have discovered a breakthrough that will make your current path in life a lost of easier to travel.
 - 'A highway for our God' express you walk on the journey with God in holiness. Like Moses, John the Baptist, or Jesus Christ alone in wilderness.
4. Recently quoted: "No one can grow in their full spiritual potential while being disconnected from the Body of Christ".
5. The glory of The Lord shall be revealed, and all men and women shall see it _____. (Isaiah 40:5)
