Further Reflection for 5/5

1. When is a moment someone shared with you a story that your response was, "I would have to see that to believe it."
2. Read John 4:43-54
3. What jumps out to you from the text?
4. Why is it so often that the people who have known you the longest struggle to see the greatest change in your life?
5. The royal official who went to Jesus was willing to humble himself and go to a former carpenter to ask for help. What does this say about the royal official?
6. What do you think Jesus means in verse 48 when he says that people will only believe if they see signs?
7. What does it say about the royal official's faith if he was willing to go home after Jesus told him that his son would be healed?
8. How can we understand God's goodness when there are moments that we might pray for healing and someone isn't healed in the way we see in this text?
9. What is the significance of John letting us know this was the second sign that Jesus performed?
10. What is a practice that we could do that might help us to learn to believe in Jesus without seeing "signs?"
