Message Series: Psalm 27 — Whom Shall I Fear?

Message Title: One Thing I Asked of the Lord

With all that needs done... who has time to _____?

When we worship...

- our _____ opens up to the love of God
- our _____ is brought to an awareness of just how holy God is
- our _____ begin to focus on God's truth
- our _____ is prompted to focus on the beauty of God
- our _____ is changed from what we want to do with our life...
to what God's will and purpose is for our life

Psalm 27 was written by a person whose _____ had been totally captured by God.

The Psalms seem to always try to show how _____ and _____ go hand in hand, and that trust is possible for those who know the Lord as the Savior of their life.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Psalm 27:1 NRSV

When evildoers assail me to devour my flesh—

my adversaries and foes—they shall stumble and fall.

Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear;

though war rise up against me, yet I will be confident. Psalm 27:2-3 NRSV

One thing I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after:

to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple. Psalm 27:4 NRSV

For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble;

he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will set me high on a rock.

Psalm 27:5 NRSV

Psalm 27 teaches us that just because a person has faith in God doesn't mean they're not going to experience _____.

Trust in God is active and real, and our trust in God grows...

precisely when a person becomes aware of a time when _____ enters into their life.

David chose to focus on God rather than difficult circumstances:

- God is my _____
- God is my _____
- God is my _____ and _____

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

John 1:5 NIV

When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world.

Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

John 8:12 NIV

Overhearing what they said, Jesus told him, "Don't be afraid; just believe."

Mark 5:36 NIV
