Further Reflection for 3/31

1. What story has impacted your life the most? Why?
2. Read John 20:1-18
3. What jumps out to you from the text?
4. Imagine being Mary for a moment, what would have been running through your mind when you saw the tomb was empty?
5. John calls himself "the other disciple, the one Jesus loved" why do you think he calls himself that? Why is it important to note that John's words about that disciple, doesn't mean the others are not loved as well?
6. What do you think that John came to believe when he left the empty tomb? (Note: make sure to take into account that the writer John shares that he didn't yet understand Scripture pointing out that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)
7. How might Mary have been able to understand the resurrection of Jesus once she saw him?
8. What are some of the symbolic things in these verses that might be connected to other spots in John's gospel (chapter 1, would be a good place to look)
9. How might you, like Mary, share your testimony of your encounter with Jesus?
