Further Reflection for 8/22

1. Hebrews 8:7-13 and write down the things that jump out to you?
2. What are the best choices you have ever made? What are the worst choices you have ever made? Why did you make the good or bad choices?
3. Why do you think it is important to understand that Jesus fulfilled all the Old Testament as we think about the New Testament?
4. Why do you think
5. Which story from the one's shared today do you find yourself relating to the most? Why?
6. Have you ever experienced a time when "God's grace was greater than your decision"?
7. Will you commit to following Jesus and joining him on His mission to change the world? Will you allow Him to change you?
8. Pray this prayer: "Father, help me to practice the ways of living that will make me more like your son. May I become the kind of person that covenants with you and with your church. May I live in a way that people see your Kingdom through me. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen."
