

COLOSSIANS 2:6-15

1:1-2 The Supremacy of Christ in Preparation	1:3 - 2:5 The Supremacy of Christ in Principle	2:6 - 4:6 The Supremacy of Christ in Practice	4:7-18 The Supremacy of Christ in Pattern
1:1 Sender: An Apostle and Brother Appointed by Christ 1:2a Recipient: A Holy and Faithful Family Forged in Christ 1:2b Salutation: A Request for Grace and Peace from the Father of Christ	1:3-8 What Matters: The Gospel of Jesus Christ 1:9-23 Why It Matters: The Supremacy of Jesus Christ 1:24 - 2:5 How We Know It Matters: The Minister of Jesus Christ	2:6-15 (A) Put on the Doctrine of Christ 2:16-23 (B) Put off the Doctrine of the World 3:1-4 (C) Pursue Christ, not the World 3:5-11 (B') Put off the Deeds of the World 3:12 - 4:6 (A') Put on the Deeds of Christ	4:7-9 Ambassadors for Christ 4:10-14 Sufferers for Christ 4:15-17 Neighbors for Christ 4:18 Paul for Christ

Put on the Doctrine of Christ

(2:6-15)

You Must Live by the Doctrines of Christ (2:6-7)

1. By Staying with Christ (2:7a)
2. By Banking on Truth (2:7b)
3. By Spamming Thanksgiving (2:7c)

Put on the Doctrine of Christ

(2:6-15)

You Must Avoid Doctrines Contrary to Christ

(2:8-15)

1. His Nature (2:9)
2. His Sufficiency (2:10a)
3. His Authority (2:10b)
4. His Regeneration (2:11-12)
5. His Forgiveness (2:13)
6. His Atonement (2:14)
7. His Victory (2:15)

Take Home

Takeaway

Take one core conviction about Christ each day this week and meditate on it. Think about why it's a core conviction and how it is supposed to change your life.

Next week's Passage

Colossians 2:16–23

Study Question

In Colossians 2:20, Paul reprimands the Colossians for trying to submit to rules. Is Paul advocating antinomianism, which is, that it is okay to live however you want, free from rules? If he's not, how do we know he isn't saying that here? What are some clues in Colossians and even in this passage that could suggest otherwise?