Further Reflection for 1/10

1. Read Isaiah 43:1-19
2. Why does the Lord tell us not to be afraid?
3. Isaiah shares these words for hope in the midst of difficulty. How might these words be helpful for us in these days?
4. Not just in Isaiah's words, but throughout the Scriptures we see reminders to forget the past. We obviously can't just forget things, but what are Isaiah and other biblical writers wanting us to know?
5. What are the things in our own lives we need to forget?
6. Forgetting is one part, but also Isaiah clearly calls people to see the new thing that God is doing. What are some new things that God has done in your life?
7. How might Jesus always be doing new things among us?
8. The last line in verse 19 is such a powerful reminder that God can do things in places and ways that we don't think possible. "I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." Is a call to hope. How might we be people who call others to hope in these days?
