Further Reflection for 2/7

1. Read Romans 12:9-21
2. Paul is basically writing a bulleted list of the behaviors that should define the life of a Christian. Write out the bulleted list. (hint: it should be 21 or more ways to live (more, if you subdivide a couple of them))
3. What makes this list so difficult?
4. Why might it be important to read Romans 12:1-2 when thinking about this list?
5. How might some of the relationships in your life be transformed if this list described your behavior with others?
6. Think of a time when someone who spoke graciously with you and it led to a change in your life?
7. Pray this prayer this week, "Father, I know the ways of the Kingdom of God don't make sense in the world in which we live. Help me to live as a person of your Kingdom in spite of the values of the world in which I live. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen."
