Further Reflection for 12/20

1. Read Luke 1:26-38
2. Put yourself in Mary's shoes, what would you have been thinking when the angel showed up?
3. Think through why verse 30 is not only important for Mary, but could be important for you and I?
4. What might we learn from the reality that God often uses women in positions that only he could bring about his purposes? (Mary- virgin; Elizabeth, Rachel, Sarah- all old (past the point of bearing children))
5. How does Luke describe the child Mary is to bring into the world? How might that impact what she responds to the angel?
6. It would seem that Mary's response in light of all the possible outcomes is a mark of great faith, "I am the Lord's servant." How might you respond to God in that way today?
