Further Reflection for 10/16

Reflection:

1. When is a moment you were lukewarm in some aspect of your life??
2. When have you made a commitment to shift from being on the fence to jumping "all-in" and what area of life was that in?

Study:

1. Read Revelation 3:14-22
 - a. What jumps out to you from the text?
 - b. What is encouraging about the idea that Jesus is faithful and true?
 - c. Summarize verses 15 and 16 in your own words.
 - d. What is the contrast being made in verse 17? How do you see that in your own life?
 - e. Verse 18 talks about not being able to see. What is the area of your life you struggle to see most clearly?
 - f. How has God or how might God be rebuking you or disciplining you in your faith journey?
 - g. Is there a time when you have sensed Jesus "knocking" on the door of your life?

Application:

1. What is one step you can make to move from lukewarm to on fire in your faith journey? Why or why not have you done that?

Prayer:

Father, help me to accept whatever area of my life you need to rebuke me. May I choose to allow your Spirit to transform my heart. In Jesus' name I Pray. Amen.

Spiritual Practice:

- Read the book of James
- Pray and reflect on what you read through the book of James
