Further Reflection for 2/21

1. Read 1 Peter 3:18-22
2. Why is it important to recognize that Jesus suffered and he lived a life that was sinless? What does that tell us about suffering?
3. How powerful is it that Jesus, the righteous one, died for all of us who are unrighteous? What does that tell us about the love of God?
4. There is some question as to what Peter means when he says that Jesus preached to the imprisoned spirits, but what is not in debate is how far God's grace goes beyond what seems reasonable to us. What might happen if we were able to extend grace to others the way Jesus extends it to us?
5. If you only had Peter's words on baptism, why is it important and what does it help accomplish in us?
6. Pray this prayer this week, "Father, help me to accept the saving grace of your son. Help me to extend your grace to others. May my life be made new like the resurrection of Jesus. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen."
