PRELUDE

“Meditation at the Cross”

Arr. Whitworth

CENTERING WORDS

Liturgist, Toni Brown

We gather around the table, hungry for Christ’s blessing. He tells us, “Just as I have loved you; you also should love one another.”

CALL TO WORSHIP

We have traveled far, and our souls are dusty.

Jesus kneels before us and washes our feet.

How are we worthy of such love?

Jesus humbles himself as a servant.

How can this be?

Jesus fills us with his love.

What can we do?

Serve our neighbors with God’s love.

OPENING HYMN

“My Jesus, I Love Thee”

No. 172

OPENING PRAYER

God of mystery, we gather tonight to remember the story that leads us into new life. As Jesus washed his disciples' feet, may we learn to serve one another. As we gather at the table, may we be ready for the journey ahead. Remind us, O God, to love one another— even when doing so is difficult, even when we want to lash out in anger, even when we want to ignore those who need us. We are not in charge. We are called to serve, to share your love. Be with us, O God, as we begin the journey that leads us to the cross. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

In the midst of life’s struggles, we cry to you, O God.

Lord, save my life.

Save me, O God from my selfish ways.

Lord, save my life.

Save me from my fears.

Lord, save my life.

Save me from my reluctance to forgive.

Lord, save my life.

Save me from my worries and concerns.

Lord, save my life.

Save me from my empty promises.

Lord, save my life.

Save me from all that keep me from loving others.

Lord, save my life.
