Life That Leads To Life

Further Reflection for 11/17

1. Have you ever been truly hated by someone else? Have you ever hated someone else? How did that experience make you feel?
2. Read John 21:15-25
3. What jumps out to you from the text?
4. Why do you think that Jesus asked Peter the same question three times?
5. What can we understand from the fact that Jesus not only restored Peter in relationship, but gave him a task to do?
6. Jesus called Peter to take care of his sheep and lambs (that is all people who choose to follow Jesus). Peter is told that he will do that in part through following Jesus. Why might Jesus be emphatic that Peter must follow him? And how will that lead to the care of His sheep/lambs?
7. Peter looks over and sees "the disciple whom Jesus loved" and is asking what will come to him. In other words, "if I am going to die for my faith, what about him." Peter shows our temptation to be concerned about others and not focused on where God has called us. How can you focus on the unique way God is wanting to use you, and still encourage others in whatever way He is using them?
8. Read John 20:30-31 and then compare it to 21:25. What does this tell us about John? Jesus? How you can know life?
9. This week, ask God to help you see if there is an area of your life that you need restored. Ask the Spirit to guide you to clarity on how you can fulfill God's call on your life.
