

Revelation 3:1-6Discussion questions:

What do you think about the difference between reputation and reality?

Have you ever tried to project a certain image to someone?

What are impressive things you have in life that might make it hard to hear God's call?

Do you find yourself more concerned with what a) others are saying, or b) what God says?

Are there areas of your heart that you have kept from Christ?

Are there areas that are spiritually dead because you have closed them off?

How does God get your attention?

What is special about the gospel being received & heard?

What does this passage say for those who conquer? What do they possess?

How does Christ's provision and action in 3:5-6 apply to your life? How does it affect you?
