Further Reflection for 1/17

1. Read John 13:34-35
2. How might this passage be “weightier” with the reality that it begins the teachings known as the “farewell discourse” as Jesus is moving toward his crucifixion?
3. The Old Testament carries multiple spots that call God’s people to love others. How is Jesus adding to and deepening that call?
4. To be a disciple, means to follow someone so closely that they look like, sound like, and act like the person they are following. Jesus makes clear that to be his disciple is to love others. How is that easy/difficult for you?
5. Jesus modeled selfless, sacrificial, love. In fact, Jesus KNEW his disciples and loved them anyway. Why is that good news for us?
6. Jesus gives the simplest, clearest, and hardest commandment of all, “love one another...in the same way I have loved you.” Describe how Jesus loves us?
