Further Reflection - 1 John 5

1. Read 1 John 5
2. How does John say we will know that we are children of God?
3. Why do you think in verses 6-8 John is writing about water and blood? (hint: what has been the thing that will lead to John calling someone an antichrist?)
4. How does John say we will have "life"? Why does that matter? What does it mean for our lives?
5. What does John say is the key to what we ask for in prayer?
6. Rewrite verses 16 and 17 in your own words
7. John is trying to differentiate from committing a sin and continuing to sin. Why is that distinction important?
8. What is powerful about living "in him" even above us having him live "in us"?
9. What are the idols that exist in our lives? What idol is John talking about? Or simply, what is an idol?
