

He leads me beside still waters

“Eye of the Dove”

LESSON 05:

“Behold, you are fair, My love! Behold, you are fair! You have dove’s eyes.” (Song of Solomon 1:15)

(The Beloved Lord is speaking to)

My Precious Child,

Beloved, I am calling you to a far deeper relationship with Me, to focus your gaze on Me alone. Even as a dove fixes its gaze upon its mate, unmoved by distractions, even so, I want you to fix your gaze on Me alone, My ‘love bird’.

Do not be like a horse or a mule easily distracted by side-vision. It can be kept on track by placing ‘blinders’ beside each eye, and a bit in its teeth. Unlike the horse or mule, stubborn and easily distracted, I want you to be like that ‘love bird’ with singular purpose, focusing dove eyes on Me so I can lead you according to My will.

Love Me enough to be obedient, allowing your spirit to become ever more sensitive to My still, small Voice. I will lead you to safety, shelter, and protection—only trust Me to sense My will for you. With one tender glance I will send you in the right direction, where you will find favor and spiritual substance.

“I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will guide you with My eye.” (Psalms 32:8)

As your ‘dove’s eyes’ focus on Me I will bring a greater awareness of My Presence. I will begin to minister to you in a very personal way and lift you far above the pull of this evil world, giving you a new sensitivity to My Spirit.

How much do you love Me? Can I trust you to develop a singular focus on Me alone so that you do not miss My best? Will you gaze upon Me only, leaving behind all others and the things that so tantalize (torment or tease with the sight or promise of something that is unobtainable) you now? Once you fall in love with My Face, you’ll no longer be satisfied to merely (simple) hear ‘about’

Me; rather you'll yearn for My Presence, eager to be in My company, where I will satisfy the deep longings inside you.

With that 'singular gaze' will also come a change in your desires. I will quench your cravings for the things of the world and inspire you to come away with Me.

"Rise up, My love, My fair one, and come away."

(Song of Solomon 2:10)

Cry out even as David: "The Lord is my LIGHT and my SALVATION; who shall I fear (afraid)?" ...one thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell (live) in the House of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold (look at) the Beauty of the Lord, and to inquire (ask or request) in His Temple." (Psalms 27:1-4)

As you let Me stir up your passion for Me, getting back to your first love, I will supply every need, filling you to overflowing, and far surpassing your expectations—finally giving you that elusive (difficult to find, catch, or achieve) abundant life.

“But you seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” (Matthew 6:33)

Today, I search earnestly for those who are willing to be ‘doves’ with that kind of singleness of vision. when I find them it brings Me incredible joy, so that I can’t help but declare:

“Behold, you are fair, you have dove’s eyes.”
(Song of Solomon 1:15)

Once I know you love Me most, more than great wealth, more than any other—once I have become to you a sought-after pearl of great price, I will be your fairest of ten thousand. I am altogether lovely, for I am your King of kings and Lord of lords, your ALL in ALL. Let Me bring you to the Banqueting House, where My banner (flag) over you is LOVE!
