

When the gospel advances and our hope is in the honor and glory of Jesus, we can rejoice both in life and in death.

Rejoice! It's All Good
When the Gospel of Christ Advances
Philippians 1:12-18a

Application: A Choice to Rejoice When Things Aren't Perfect

C _____ or Rejoice?

F _____ or Rejoice?

Be O _____ or Rejoice?

Rejoice! It's All Good
When We Live Life and Face Death in Christ
Philippians 1:18b-26

Application: Living in Christ

Application: Dying is Gain

Application Questions for Discussion/Reflection

1. What current undesirable circumstance might God be using for the advance of the gospel? What does it look like to rejoice in that?
2. What does it look like for you to live in Christ, engaging in "fruitful labor"? Do you believe it's better to depart and be with Christ?
3. Read and pray through Philippians 1:27-30 before next week.

Philippians

summer sermon series

Have you ever noticed that different people can look at the same circumstances yet have a drastically different outlook? Today, we will look at the next section in Philippians 1 where we'll see Paul's outlook in the midst of his circumstances.

We'll be pushed to ask questions like these:
What causes us to rejoice? Where is our hope?
What makes life good? What makes death good?

In the end, we will see that when the gospel advances and our hope is in the honor and glory of Jesus, we can rejoice both in life and in death.
