Further Reflection for 7/28

1. Read John 10:1-21. What comes to mind when you read this passage? What stands out to you?
2. Jesus describes himself as the gate through which sheep receive abundant life here and now. What does it mean to experience abundant life through Christ in our lives?
3. We have a responsibility by the way we live, speak, and treat people to be good reflections of Christ. Considering this, what are ways that you can be a better reflection of Jesus in your life?
4. Jesus says his sheep hear and know his voice. How can we, as believers, grow to recognize God's voice and work in our lives more clearly?
5. Jesus talks about how the flock will include other sheep as well, meaning that there will be believers of all different backgrounds. What does it look like for us to seek unity in diversity rooted in Christ, rather than conformity?
6. What is a possible next step for you? What is one way you can grow in faith this week or month?
