Further Reflection for 10/25

1. Read John 17:1, 11, 20-23
2. How should we think about being one with Jesus?
3. Paraphrase verse 21 in your own words.
4. How might we think through the call to live in such a way that others know Jesus by the way we are "one"?
5. Read John 13:34-35
6. How might you make sure that love is what people see in your life? What is an area that, if you are honest, you may not look quite as loving as you should?
7. If someone saw how you spent your time, used your words, or saw your browsing history, would they think that politics or Jesus mattered more in your life?
8. How can you work to be a good citizen where you live and make sure that your love for others is more evident than who you may vote for?
9. This week pray daily that you will "love unconditionally someone with whom you disagree politically." Find an opportunity to practice that love.
