Scripture Reading: Mark 7:24-30

Message Title: The Day the Gospel went to the Dogs

Some Pharisees and teachers of the Law who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus.

Mark 7:1 TEV

So they ran all over that part of the country to bring their sick people to him on mats. They brought them each time they heard where he was. In every village or farm or marketplace where Jesus went, the people brought their sick to him. They begged him to let them just touch his clothes, and everyone who did was healed.

Mark 6:55-56 CEV

He entered a house there where he didn't think he would be found, but he couldn't escape notice.

Mark 7:24 MES

Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophoenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

Mark 7:26 NRSV

Jesus told her, "First I should help my own family—the Jews. It isn't right to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs."

Mark 7:27 LIV

And she answered and said to Him, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children's crumbs."

Mark 7:28 NKJV

"Good answer!" he said. "Now go home, for the demon has left your daughter."

Mark 7:29 NLT
