Further Reflection for 8/14

1. Read Hebrews 11:29-12:2
2. What jumps out to you from the text?
3. Compare and contrast the results of faith from 11:29-35a and 11:35b-38. What does this help us to understand about faith?
4. Verses 39 and 40 talk about something better to be received. What is the better the writer of Hebrews is talking about?
5. In verse 1 of chapter 12 we see the writer mention things that hinder our faith. What are the greatest hindrances to your faith?
6. Verse 2 begins with the idea that followers of Jesus are to fix their eyes on Jesus. How might you better do that?
7. Commit to reading the Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John) more. Read one chapter per day and reflect on what you may be able to learn about Jesus so that you can follow him more closely.
