

Ephesians
1:3-14

Pray for Spiritual Sight

Lessons From
Ephesians 1:15-22

1. The Benefits of Spiritual Sight

1

Thankfulness

2

Hopefulness

3

Christ as Treasure

When our spiritual eyes are opened, we experience gratitude that transcends circumstances, hope that endures trials, and satisfaction in Christ above all worldly treasures.

Open The Eyes Of My Heart

Without Spiritual Sight

With Spiritual Sight

“God must not only give us the thing, but give us eyes to see it, or else we are nothing the better for it.”— Works of
Thomas Goodwin,

2. Seeing Christ's Power by Faith

Resurrection Power (v20)

Sovereign Authority (v21)

Eternal Dominion (v21)

Headship Over All (v22)

This power transforms our perspective on suffering, opposition, and spiritual warfare. We see our challenges through the lens of Christ's ultimate victory and authority.

The Power of One Word

“Christ's power is an infinite power. If one word from Him created the world, what may we not expect from such a mighty Savior?”

— Jonathan Edwards

Popular Prayer Topics

Prayer Topic	Percentage
Gratitude	62%
Personal Needs	61%
Confession	49%
Others' Needs	47%
Spiritual Growth	20-25%

Application: Pray for One Another's Spiritual Sight

Follow Paul's Example

Pray Specifically

Expect Transformation

- ❏ Prayer Exercise: Take a moment to pray Paul's prayer in Ephesians 1:17-19 for someone specific in your life who needs spiritual enlightenment.

Application: Praying for Our Church Family on Wednesday at noon

For Our Pastor's Renewal

For Deacon
Leadership

For the Congregation's
Thriving