

As people who are saved and being saved,
we obey in a different way.

Christian Obedience: Our Work and God's Work

Philippians 2:12-13

Application: May God's work for our salvation
M_____ and E_____ us to work out our salvation.

Christian Obedience: Standing Out and Pouring Out

Philippians 2:14-18

Application: Brightly Standing Out

Application: Joyfully Pouring Out

Application Questions for Discussion/Reflection

1. In what ways does God's work for your salvation motivate you to obedience? In what ways does God's ongoing work in you empower you to obey?
2. What are some ways you could obey the commands of 2:14-16 in a way that makes you stand out brightly?
3. What are some ways you could, like Jesus and like Paul, joyfully pour yourself out for the good of others?
4. Read and pray through Philippians 2:19-30 before next week.

Philippians
summer sermon series

What is the relationship between obedience and salvation?
What is the relationship between our work and God's work?

These important questions will not be answered fully in one sermon but the passage we're looking at today certainly gives us some insight.

As people who are saved and being saved,
we obey in a different way.
