Greeting: The peace of Christ be with you!
Response: And also with you!

Rev. Hojin Shin

CENTERING WORDS (Psalm 113:1-3 CEB)

- ¹ Praise the Lord! You who serve the Lord—praise! Praise the Lord's name!
² Let the Lord's name be blessed from now until forever from now!
³ From sunrise to sunset, let the Lord's name be praised!

CALL TO WORSHIP

As we live and as God lives,
God will not leave us.
When fire devours and storms blow us astray,
God will not leave us.
When truth is veiled and confusion reigns,
God will not leave us.
When the world changes around us,
God will not leave us.
When we long to speak but find no words,

God will not leave us.
When all around us is silent,
God will not leave us.
When faithfulness feels beyond us,
God will not leave us.
As we live and as God lives,
We worship the One who will not leave us.

OPENING PRAYER

You gave us music, so we, your children praise you in jazz together. Come, Lord here and receive our praise, thanksgiving, glory, and honor. Be pleased with us today as we shout, sing, and dance like King David, and grant us your grace. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Fellowship

Please join us go through the doors to the left of the alter area and join us for a special Jazz Sunday Fellowship. We will have Gumbo, Beignets, and King Cake. Everyone is welcome!

The Beauty in Simple Messages

Following fellowship, join us back in the sanctuary for a special lesson from Dr. John Roberts, Ed. D.

Music within the worship experience is intended to inspire, not only outwardly, but, most importantly, inwardly. Composers and lyricists, though well intentioned, miss the mark by making things too complicated for digestion by the singers and the congregants. The most inspiring, heart tugging songs are the simplest - with the simplest of melodies and simplest of lyrics. There's a song in the African American community entitled "It's Good to Go Back to the Old-Time Way." We will look at the beauty in simple messages of songs of the faith!

Announcements

Please join us for Fellowship in Hartman Hall after worship.
