SENATE RESOLUTION 25-012

101 CONCERNING COMMEMORATING CINCO DE MAYO.

1 WHEREAS, Cinco de Mayo marks El Dia de la Batalla de Puebla,
2 the Mexican forces' unlikely victory over the Second French Empire
3 forces -- the largest military force during this time -- under the leadership
4 of General Ignacio Zaragoza Seguin on May 5, 1862, a day that has come
5 to represent pride, unity, and resilience for Mexican Americans,
6 Hispanos, Chicanos, and Latinos in the United States. As we celebrate 7 Cinco de Mayo, we recognize the contributions of Mexican Americans,
8 Hispanos, Chicanos, and Latinos to our state's community and culture,
9 economy, arts and entertainment, politics, and advocacy for marginalized 10 communities and communities of color; and

11 WHEREAS, We recognize that much of the modern-day state of 12 Colorado was once part of Mexico and became part of the United States 13 with the ratification of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, and we 14 recognize Hispano women like Teresita Sandoval, Rumalda Luna Boggs,
15 and Maria Josefa Jaramillo Carson and Hispano men such as Casimiro 16 Barela and Felipe Baca in the founding of Colorado and their fight to 17 ensure that the rights of Hispanos and Mexican Americans would be 18 recognized in this new state; and

May 5, 2025

1 WHEREAS, Mexican Americans, Hispanos, Chicanos, and 2 Latinos helped create the state of Colorado, including through agriculture
3 and industry, from the sheep herds and cattle ranches of the San Luis 4 Valley, to the braceros working in sugar beet fields, chile growers, and 5 also coal miners and mill workers, military and war heroes like Joe P.
6 Martinez, Pete Jimenez, and Col. Louis Mendez. We recognize 7 community builders like Celedonio Mondragón, founder of La Sociedad
8 Protección Mutua de Trabajadores Unidos (SPMDTU), which is the 9 oldest Latino civil rights organization in the country, and Doña Bernarda
10 Mejia Velasquez, an army medic and midwife who delivered 3,000 11 children; and

12 WHEREAS, Mexican Americans, Hispanos, Chicanos, and 13 Latinos have played a pivotal role in social justice movements for 14 equality, and we recognize the work of community leaders Frank Anaya,

16 Richard Castro, Betty Benavidez, and Federico Peña in their fight to 17 ensure equal protection, equal treatment, and equal opportunity for the 18 diverse communities of Colorado. It is thanks to the groundwork laid by 19 organizations such as the Good Americans Organization, United Farm
20 Workers, Madres del Movimiento, Crusade for Justice, and West Side 21 Coalition that a strong Latino/Chicano movement continues to thrive and 22 grow in Colorado; and

23 WHEREAS, Many Coloradans of Mexican American, Hispano, 24 Chicano, and Latino descent also identify with their indigenous roots and 25 recognize the importance of lifting up the indigenous community, and we

27 Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls; and

28 WHEREAS, As undocumented immigrants come under attack by 29 the current administration, we resolve to continue to fight for the civil 30 rights of all residents of Colorado and remain adamant that the history 31 and contributions of our people will not be erased or rewritten. We are 32 proud of the strong ties we continue to forge with Mexico and recognize
