agencies' sunset review and report on the Colorado "Pet Animal Care and Facilities Act" (Act) as follows:

- ! As it relates to an owner who fails to provide a pet animal facility with documentation that the owner's animal was sterilized within 90 days after agreeing to the sterilization, removes the option to donate the sterilization deposit to a local dedicated spay and neuter fund instead of the pet overpopulation fund and repeals language allowing a facility to reclaim the animal (section 3);
- ! Adds as grounds for discipline under the Act, a violation of any statute, rule, or regulation pertaining to animal health and fitness promulgated by a local, state, or federal authority where the licensee's or applicant's facility is located (section 4);
- ! Adds as grounds for discipline under the Act, a conviction of a local, state, or federal offense involving the theft, importation, capture, neglect, or abuse of an animal (section 4);
- ! Extends the 2-year waiting period that a licensee whose license has been revoked must wait before applying for a new license to a principal, officer, director, manager, or any other person who has substantial control or authority over the daily operations of the entity, regardless of the reason for the revocation (section 4);
- ! Extends the commissioner of agriculture's authority to discipline a licensee or deny a license to an applicant for crimes involving animal cruelty to cases where a licensee or applicant has entered a plea of no contest (section 4);
- ! Requires that all fines collected under the act be credited to the general fund instead of the pet animal care and facility fund (section 5); and
- ! Appropriates $144,927 to the department of agriculture for the purpose of increasing inspection and investigative functions under the Act (section 6).

The bill also continues the Act for 7 years, until September 1, 2026 (sections 1 and 2).

25                   (2) For the 2019-20 state fiscal year, $2,000 is appropriated to the 26                   department of personnel. This appropriation is from reappropriated funds
27                   received from the department of agriculture under subsection (1)(b) of

1       this section. To implement this act, the department of personnel may use
2       this appropriation to provide vehicles for the department of agriculture.

3                   SECTION 7. Act subject to petition - effective date -
4       applicability. (1) This act takes effect at 12:01 a.m. on the day following
5       the expiration of the ninety-day period after final adjournment of the 6       general assembly (August 2, 2019, if adjournment sine die is on May 3,
7       2019); except that, if a referendum petition is filed pursuant to section 1
8       (3) of article V of the state constitution against this act or an item, section,
9       or part of this act within such period, then the act, item, section, or part
10      will not take effect unless approved by the people at the general election
11      to be held in November 2020 and, in such case, will take effect on the 12      date of the official declaration of the vote thereon by the governor.

13                (2) This act applies to conduct occurring on or after the applicable
14      effective date of this act.
