

SENATE RESOLUTION 19-004

BY SENATOR(S) Garcia and Cooke, Bridges, Court, Crowder, Danielson, Donovan, Fenberg, Fields, Foote, Gardner, Ginal, Gonzales, Hill, Hisey, Holbert, Lee, Lundeen, Marble, Moreno, Pettersen, Priola, Rankin, Rodriguez, Scott, Smallwood, Sonnenberg, Story, Tate, Todd, Williams A., Winter, Woodward, Zenzinger.

CONCERNING THE DESIGNATION OF SEPTEMBER 27 AS
"FIRST RESPONDER APPRECIATION DAY" IN COLORADO.

WHEREAS, First responders risk their own lives and safety in the execution of their duties to protect the public on a daily basis; and

WHEREAS, First responders are the first line of defense for the public against threats, both domestic and foreign; and

WHEREAS, Nationally, on average, first responders are injured on the job three times more often than workers in other occupations; and

WHEREAS, First responders experience extreme physical demands and hazardous situations that contribute to personal injury and death, including gunfire, vehicular accidents, assaults, and building collapses; and

WHEREAS, First responders are exposed to occupation-related diseases such as cardiorespiratory disease, overexertion, and cancer; and

WHEREAS, First responder deaths constitute five percent of occupational fatalities nationwide; and

WHEREAS, First responders experience high levels of stress, and many struggle with mental health issues, such as post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), which family members of first responders also often develop; and

WHEREAS, Thousands of first responders have made the ultimate sacrifice, including police and sheriff's patrol officers, who have an estimated fatality rate of 14.6 per 100,000 workers, more than twice the national average, a number that includes three officers who died in the line of duty in Colorado in 2018; and

WHEREAS, First responders stand at the ready to come to the aid of the citizens of the United States of America twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week; and

WHEREAS, First responders are a vital part of our communities, not only standing ready to deal with emergencies but also volunteering in our schools and community organizations; and

WHEREAS, Individuals, both career and volunteer, including police, fire, emergency medical services, search and rescue, and other organizations in the public safety sector, come together as a collective to aid the public in the event of an emergency; and

WHEREAS, There are over one million firefighters in the United States, and over 800,000 of those are volunteer firefighters; and

WHEREAS, There are over 800,000 emergency medical services personnel in the United States; and

WHEREAS, There are over 750,000 state and local law enforcement officers working for nearly 18,000 law enforcement agencies around the country; and

WHEREAS, Colorado joins the following states in designating September 27 as "First Responder Appreciation Day": Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, Arizona, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS, The Colorado General Assembly wishes to honor and support all first responders with an annual day of appreciation; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-second General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

(1) That we, the members of the Colorado General Assembly, designate September 27, 2019, as "First Responder Appreciation Day"; and
