Final Reading
April 22, 2025

1 WHEREAS, In his dozen years as a city attorney, Mr. Vidergar
2 advises city officials on complex municipal legal, regulatory, and 3 procedural matters in the areas of utility services, telecommunications, 4 land use planning, and engineering practices; and

5 WHEREAS, Before serving as an assistant city attorney, Mr.
6 Vidergar represented municipalities in land use, utility, and oil and gas 7 litigation and appeals and formed and advised various 8 quasi-governmental metropolitan, water and sanitation, and road districts; 9 and

10 WHEREAS, Mr. Vidergar's legal experience has given him an 11 appreciation for the balance required for the citizen oversight of 12 government officials protected in the state constitution and the Colorado
13 Revised Statutes; and

14 WHEREAS, Mr. Vidergar has been and remains an active member
15 of the legal and nonlegal communities, serving as a volunteer mediator 16 for the small claims division in the eighth judicial district, serving on the 17 Civil Rights and Mock Trial Committees of the Colorado Bar
18 Association, guest lecturing at Front Range Community College,
19 co-chairing the Young Attorneys subcommittee of the American Bar 20 Association Litigation Ethics Committee, and serving as President of the 21 Mountain Sage Community School Board of Directors; and

22 WHEREAS, Mr. Vidergar also writes a monthly column in the 23 Longmont Times-Call newspaper and has had numerous articles 24 published in local and legal publications regarding various local 25 government and business law topics; and

26 WHEREAS, On the basis of his dedicated public service both as 27 an assistant city attorney and in representing governmental and 28 quasi-governmental entities in the state and his engagement and 29 involvement in the legal and local communities, Mr. Vidergar has 30 demonstrated the temperament and personal qualities that will enable him 31 to serve as a respected member of the Independent Ethics Commission in 32 an exemplary manner and in a way that will reflect well upon the Senate,
33 the Colorado General Assembly, and the State of Colorado; now, 34 therefore,

35 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-fifth General Assembly

1 of the State of Colorado:

2 That the Senate hereby approves President Coleman's appointment
3 of Cyril Vidergar to the Independent Ethics Commission for a term
4 commencing July 1, 2025, and ending June 30, 2029.

5 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be sent to 6 the Chair of the Independent Ethics Commission, the Executive Director
7 of the Independent Ethics Commission, and Cyril Vidergar.
