Summary of Legislation

Current law specifies the individuals who may administer an oath or affirmation in court. The bill adds certified verbatim reporters and certified verbatim reporters-stenotype to the list of individuals who may administer oaths and affirmations.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

Courts will have additional flexibility for which staff are available to administer an oath or affirmation, but the bill does not impact the number of personnel required to be present during court proceedings nor does it affect the overall length of the proceeding. Because this change will not have any impact on court revenues or expenditures, this bill is assessed as having no fiscal impact.

Effective Date

The bill takes was signed into law by the Governor and took effect on May 30, 2025.
