

LB39

LEADERSHIP BOZEMAN 39

Emerald Anderson,
Ponderosa Social

Emerald Anderson serves as the Event Coordinator at Ponderosa Social, bringing more than a decade of management experience across the retail, hospitality, and events industries. Throughout her career, she has built a reputation as a thoughtful leader and skilled problem solver, thriving in the challenges of team management, operations, and creating efficient systems. Emerald's true passion lies in event coordination, where she combines her skills in logistics, creativity, and hospitality to create engaging experiences in hopes of leaving a lasting impression. She enjoys bringing people together and believes well-executed events strengthen relationships and build community.

Nick Anderson,
Buffalo Restoration

Nick Anderson has been a valued member of the Buffalo Restoration team for more than 20 years. He earned his Certified Restorer (CR) designation in 2017 and holds Air Systems Cleaning Specialist (ASCS) and Certified Ventilation Inspector (CVI) certifications through the National Air Duct Cleaners Association (NADCA). Raised in Cut Bank, Montana, Nick developed his strong work ethic working alongside his father in the family construction business. He and his wife, Emily, have three children. Outside of work, Nick enjoys rafting Montana's rivers, spending time outdoors with his family, and exploring everything Bozeman has to offer.

Karina Armenta,
Cameron Crossing

Karina Armenta is a Multi-Family Housing professional with 12 years of industry experience that she developed over several years of development starting from Leasing agent position and moving up into a regional position. Karina leverages being bi-lingual to develop incredible relationships with tenants as well as her teams. Karina has led strong investor and owner relationships that have resulted in many clients purchasing additional sites in the market she operates in. Karina stays financially focused while understanding how best to leverage a property's bottom line.

Robin Bagley,
Yellowstone Fiber

Robin Bagley, a native of Marmarth, North Dakota, moved to Montana in 1991 after attending Miles Community College. He settled in Bozeman in 1993 and managed Big Sky Locators before beginning his telecommunications career in 1995 with TCI Cablevision. Over the next 30 years, he worked through the company's transitions to AT&T, Comcast, Bresnan, Optimum, and Charter. In May 2025, Robin became Technical Director at Yellowstone Fiber, delivering gigabit service in Bozeman with plans of expanding into Gallatin County. He enjoys hunting, camping, and spending as much time as possible with his wife, six children, two grandchildren, and another on the way.

Edna Mae Berkey,
Montana Ballet Company

Edna Mae Berkey is the General Manager of Montana Ballet Company, where she oversees operations, strategic growth, and community partnerships. Her career spans nonprofit leadership, finance, construction, and the performing arts, with a passion for bringing people together to achieve more than any one organization could accomplish alone. As a Leadership Bozeman participant, she looks forward to learning from fellow leaders, building lasting relationships, and strengthening the collaborative spirit that helps the Gallatin Valley thrive.

Jordan Blair,
Bank of Bozeman

Jordan is the Sales & Service Officer/ AVP at Bank of Bozeman. Managing the Teller Line, New Accounts Department, and Business Development means Jordan rarely sits still. A firm believer in Community banks, Jordan enjoys assisting the Montana Bankers Association and Montana Independent Bankers with advocacy work from Helena to D.C. In his free time, Jordan can most frequently be found at the golf course inventing new ways to be bad at the sport, watching football with his wife Hannah, or throwing a ball for his dog named Trout.

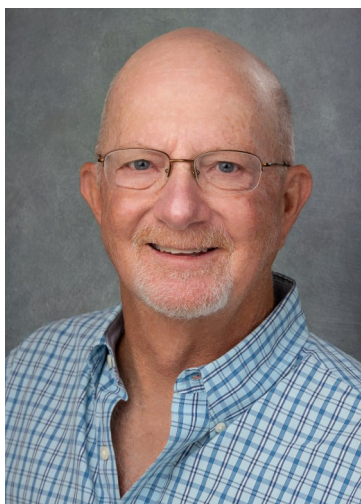

Shelby Bouma,
Leavitt Great West

Shelby Bouma's career has been defined by delivering a high-touch, detail-driven client experience. After seven years in New York City working with Disney Cruise Line's Broadway-style productions, private family offices, and C-suite executives, she joined Leavitt Great West in 2022. Today, she leads the firm's Private Client division, advising high-net-worth individuals and families on protecting homes, liability, and lifestyle assets through a concierge-level approach to risk management. Outside of work, Shelby serves on the Bozeman Daily Chronicle Editorial Board, was Miss Montana USA 2024, and, with her husband Logan, is excited to welcome their first child in January 2027.

Michael Bourret,
Lone Mountain Land
Company

Michael Bourret is SVP of Accounting for Lone Mountain Land Company, where he oversees the accounting function for CrossHarbor Capital's resort developments across Montana. A Great Falls native, Michael completed the CPA review graduate program at Montana State University in Bozeman and passed the CPA exam in 1996, launching a career in public accounting. In 2005, he moved into resort development, joining Moonlight Basin before moving to the Yellowstone Club and eventually Lone Mountain Land Company. Michael leads by encouraging his team to anticipate needs before they arise. His favorite saying is, "Tell me what you can do, not what you can't do." Outside the office, he skis, golfs, and runs year-round, weather permitting.

Andrew Brief,
The Picklr

Andrew Brief is the owner and operator of The Picklr Bozeman, a premier 13-court indoor pickleball facility. Before beginning his “second career,” Andrew founded and led Hudson Dynamic Retirement, a wealth management firm in Garrison, New York, for 39 years. He and his wife, Kelly, now call Manhattan, Montana, home. While officially retired, Andrew’s passion for building community inspired him to bring The Picklr to the Gallatin Valley, creating a welcoming place where people of all ages and abilities can connect, compete, and build lasting friendships through pickleball.

Aaron Collins,
Bozeman Yellowstone Intl
Arpt

Aaron Collins is a U.S. Army veteran that proudly served as an Airborne Ranger and seasoned airport executive with more than 20 years of aviation industry experience. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Professional Aeronautics and an MBA from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. Aaron has earned the Accredited Airport Executive (A.A.E.) designation from the American Association of Airport Executives and the International Airport Professional (IAP) designation. His leadership experience includes roles at San Diego International Airport, Glacier Park International Airport, and Bellingham International Airport. He currently serves as Executive Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer at Bozeman Yellowstone International Airport.

Tori Cook,
Cook Development

Tori Cook works in her family’s real estate development business, Cook Development. As a third generation member of the office, she is involved in the financial analysis of projects and day-to-day business operations. The company focuses on commercial and subdivision development in Montana, with the majority of its projects in the Gallatin Valley. Tori graduated from Montana State University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Finance. She is currently pursuing an online master’s degree in Real Estate Development through the University of Arizona. In her free time, she enjoys hunting, off-roading, and skiing.

Alex Cuchine,
First Interstate Bank

Alex Cuchine is an Associate Commercial Relationship Manager with First Interstate Bank and brings more than a decade of banking experience to her role. A Montana native born and raised in Deer Lodge, she began her career in banking immediately after high school as a teller with a small savings and loan institution. After moving to Bozeman in 2017, Alex briefly attended Montana State University pursuing a nursing degree before returning to banking at First Interstate Bank. Following a two-year move to North Carolina, she returned to the Gallatin Valley in 2024. Outside of work, Alex enjoys outdoor adventures, coaching youth sports, volunteering, and spending time with her husband, three children, and two dogs.

Elizabeth Feary,
Montana State University

Elizabeth Feary serves as Director of Career Services at Montana State University, connecting students, employers, and community partners to strengthen opportunities across Montana. Through her involvement with the Montana Ambassador program, she engages with leaders across sectors to support business growth and regional collaboration. Elizabeth brings more than 25 years of leadership experience spanning higher education, government, international development, and private industry. From 2009 to 2025, she served as a U.S. Foreign Service Officer with USAID, including as Senior Development Advisor to Greenland. Proud to call the Gallatin Valley home, she and her husband enjoy Montana's outdoor lifestyle and strong sense of community.

Brendan Finn,
IMEG

Born and raised in Connecticut, Brendan Finn made the move to Bozeman in 2017 and has been happy to call Montana home ever since. He began his career with C&H Engineering, which later merged with IMEG, and has enjoyed growing both professionally and personally in the Bozeman community. Drawn west by the snow, he spends his weekends fishing, floating, and camping whenever he can. During the week, he can be found on the soccer fields, doing his best to keep up with the younger generation.

Jeremy Fox,
First Security Bank

Jeremy is a fourth-generation Montana native who was born in Helena and raised in Missoula. He earned a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of North Dakota and has more than 20 years of banking experience serving clients across a wide range of industries and company sizes. A dedicated client advocate, he is committed to helping businesses achieve financial success. Jeremy lives in Bozeman with his wife, Sarah, and their three children. Outside of work, he enjoys family time, skiing, fishing, golfing, and volunteering in local schools and youth baseball programs.

Carrie Gaffney,
Bozeman Health

Carrie Gaffney, PT, MHA, is the Director of Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Services at Bozeman Health. She oversees multidisciplinary rehabilitation services across inpatient, outpatient, pediatric, and sports medicine settings. A licensed physical therapist with a Master of Healthcare Administration, Carrie is dedicated to advancing patient-centered care, operational excellence, and high-performing clinical teams. She collaborates closely with Montana State University Athletics to expand access to sports medicine services and is passionate about developing innovative programs that improve the health and well-being of the communities Bozeman Health serves.

Chad Galicia,
Summit Valet & Storage

Chad Galicia is a Louisiana native who brought his southern warmth and community spirit to Montana to launch Summit Valet & Storage. With years of service through Rotary and the American Cancer Society, he's built a reputation for showing up, pitching in, and supporting the people around him. Now settled in Montana, Chad blends hospitality, reliability, and genuine care into his work and relationships, always focused on strengthening the community and creating connections that make Montana feel like home.

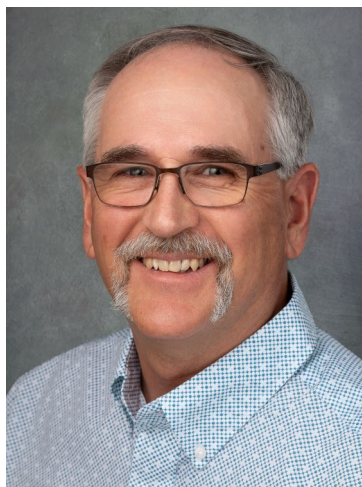

Heidi Harden,
USBank

Heidi L. Harden is a community-focused banking leader serving as Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager at U.S. Bank in Bozeman, Montana. With more than 20 years of leadership experience, Heidi is passionate about developing people, building strong teams, and creating exceptional customer experiences. She has led organizational change, championed financial literacy initiatives, and partnered with local schools, universities, and community organizations to support workforce development. Heidi believes leadership is rooted in service, empowerment, and collaboration, and she is committed to strengthening both her team and the Bozeman community through meaningful relationships and community engagement.

Kendall Haverlandt,
Revitalized Restoration

Kendall Haverlandt is the Brand and Marketing Strategist at Revitalized Restoration, where she leads marketing, branding, community involvement, and strategic communications. Born and raised in Montana, she is a proud Montana girl at heart and a graduate of Montana State University. Kendall is passionate about strengthening local communities and preserving the values that make Montana special as the region continues to grow. Through Leadership Bozeman, she looks forward to expanding her leadership skills while helping foster a thriving, connected community for generations to come.

Shawn Jerome,
Harrington's Pepsi Cola
Bottling

Shawn Jerome was born in Helena Montana to Gale and Florence Jerome. They decided to move the family to Bozeman in 1971. After graduating from Bozeman Senior High, Shawn worked at Checker Auto and was promoted to management. Shawn worked at JC Billion as a parts man from 1987 leaving in 1994 to work at Rotech Medical Corporation where he was promoted to manager in 1997. In 2001 Shawn left Rotech Medical to work for Harrington Bottling. Where he is still working today as the manager of Harrington Vending Services in Bozeman, providing Micro Markets, Office Coffee, and Vending services.

Madi Kalthoff,
Intermountain Health

Madi Kalthoff is a Manager at Intermountain Health who is passionate about developing strong teams, supporting organizational growth, and creating exceptional experiences for patients and the community of the Gallatin Valley. Originally from Red Lodge, Montana, Madi brings a collaborative leadership style focused on relationship-building, continuous improvement, and service to others. Madi also serves the community as an EMT and volunteers with local organizations, reflecting a commitment to helping others both inside and outside the workplace. Outside of work, Madi enjoys exploring the state's natural beauty and adventure with her husband and two golden retrievers.

Cory Kelley,
Bozeman Fly Supply

Cory Kelley owns Bozeman Fly Supply, a local fly shop serving Bozeman's fly-fishing community. He has built Bozeman Fly Supply into a welcoming space where anglers of all levels and backgrounds learn, gather, and grow together. For Cory, fly fishing and fly-tying are as much about connection as they are about the fish. He is a committed advocate for local waters and is interested in water issues throughout the Gallatin Valley and beyond. He brings a varied background, spanning film production, advertising, design, and banjo building. Above all, he is a proud husband and father to an 11-year-old son.

Lissette Knowlton,
Stockman Bank

Lissette Knowlton is a Regional Cash Management Specialist with 10 years of banking experience. She is committed to delivering exceptional support and building lasting client relationships. Her professionalism, reliability, and positive attitude enable her to contribute to Stockman Bank's continued success while consistently exceeding customer expectations. She enjoys the outdoors, skiing, hiking, biking with her family, as well as traveling and reading.

Drew Kowalchuk,
Martel Construction

Drew earned a degree in Construction Engineering Technology from Montana State University before joining Martel Construction as a Project Engineer in 2024. He enjoys working with the many people and organizations involved in bringing construction projects to life and values the opportunity to help build the community he calls home. Through Leadership Bozeman, Drew hopes to broaden his perspective, build meaningful relationships, and continue growing as both a professional and a member of the Gallatin Valley community.

Brent Lloyd,
Gallatin College

Brent is twenty-eight years old and works for Gallatin College - MSU as an Academic Support Specialist. He graduated from Montana State with his Bachelors in English in 2021 and his Masters in Public Administration in 2023 and has worked for Gallatin College since then. He is a Montana native out of Helena and a multi-generational MSU student. He works primarily with collegiate students in two-year developmental programs, the medical field, and in workforce programs primarily feeding the Gallatin Valley.

Jenae McAbee,
Opportunity Bank of Montana

Jenae McAbee likes to say their job as a Mortgage Loan Officer Assistant at Opportunity Bank is to make people's dreams come true. She calls on 7 years of mortgage experience to guide folks on their journey into the security and wealth building power of homeownership. Born in Kalispell, she came to Bozeman for college, met the love of her life, and settled down to raise a dog. Perhaps not as outdoorsy as the average Bozemanite, you can still find her walking the Gallagator after work on the way to the library or some type of art focused community event.

Josh Murray,
Pinion

Josh Murray is a Certified Public Accountant who grew up in New Mexico and has built his career and life in Montana. After graduating from Furman University in 2006, he moved to Montana to work in Yellowstone National Park. He later settled in Belgrade, Montana, in 2019 and continued advancing his education, earning a degree from Montana State University Billings in 2022. Josh attained his CPA license in 2023 and works as a Senior Associate in Audit and Attest Services with Pinion, providing assurance and advisory services to clients across a variety of industries.

Meredith Nichols,
Greater Gallatin United Way

Originally from Denver, Colorado, Meredith moved to Montana to attend the University of Montana, where she earned a degree in Marketing. She now serves as the Enrollment Coordinator for Greater Gallatin United Way, connecting families with accessible out-of-school time opportunities throughout Gallatin County. She is passionate about building relationships, solving problems, and improving systems that better serve children and families. In her free time, Meredith enjoys attending spin classes, getting together with friends, and spending time in her community (sometimes all at once!).

Julie Olander,
First Trust Company

Julie Olander, CFP®, CTFA, AAMS®, is a Trust Officer with First Trust Company in Bozeman, specializing in trust and estate administration for the Montana community. She works closely with individuals and families to help preserve wealth, honor legacy goals, and navigate complex fiduciary responsibilities with care and expertise. With a background in financial planning and fiduciary services, Julie is committed to building trusted relationships and delivering personalized guidance. She is passionate about helping clients create meaningful, lasting impacts for future generations.

Lisa Olmsted,
DOWL

Lisa Olmsted leads DOWL's firm-wide project communications team, supporting public engagement, public relations, and strategic communications for civil infrastructure projects across the Mountain West, Alaska, and Pacific Northwest. She develops tailored strategies that connect communities, stakeholders, and decision-makers throughout project development and construction. Known for her collaborative approach, she partners with public officials, community leaders, stakeholders, and media to build awareness, trust, and support for projects. A native of Livingston, Montana, and a graduate of Montana State University in Bozeman, Lisa brings experience in marketing, operations, and communications across nonprofit and for-profit sectors.

Heather Porlier,
45 Architecture & Interiors

Heather Porlier is the Director of Interior Design at 45 Architecture + Interiors in Bozeman. She has served as Director for 4 years with the firm and has been in the design industry for 15 years, having been based in Dallas, Texas before moving to Montana. Heather graduated from The University of Oklahoma and began her career designing spaces across the country. She focuses on both residential and commercial projects and believes the key to a successful design process is detailed and consistent communication, organic development and an element of fun and inhibition. Heather is constantly seeking to create aspirational spaces that are also functional and namely, timeless. Outside of her career, Heather enjoys running a small hobby farm, skiing or traveling across the State for Montana Junior High Rodeo with her husband and kids.

Levi Prevost,
Haselden Montana
Constructors

Levi Prevost is a Project Manager for Haselden Montana Constructors. He earned an engineering degree from the University of Wyoming while leading the wrestling team as team captain. Levi spent the next 20 years in the design and construction industry in Arizona and Colorado. Taking the opportunity to return to his home state, Levi left Haselden Construction's main operations in Colorado to help grow a new office in Bozeman. When he is not solving problems in the commercial construction world, Levi can be found in the garage, on the golf course, or exploring the outdoors with his family.

Reema Redfern,
Bozeman Health

Reema Redfern is the Assistant General Counsel at Bozeman Health. She provides legal counsel on a range of corporate and transactional matters including contracts, employment, property, governance, legislation, and policy to support business activities and operations. Reema was born and raised in Anaconda and attended Montana State University where she earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in psychology prior to attending law school at the University of Montana. Before joining Bozeman Health, Reema served as a law clerk for the third judicial district court in Anaconda. In her free time, she enjoys reading, baking, golfing, and traveling with her family.

Jake Robl,
Encore Electric

Jake Robl is an Account Manager at Encore Electric. With a background in project engineering, customer service, and business ownership, he brings a practical, collaborative approach to every interaction. Jake earned his MBA in 2024 from the University of Montana and is known for being dependable, easy to work with, and always looking for new challenges. Outside of work, he enjoys rafting, skiing and backpacking.

Kenzie Sacry,
Billings Clinic Bozeman

Kenzie Sacry believes every community needs people willing to send the email, plan the event, make the introduction, and bring the cupcakes! At Billings Clinic Bozeman, she helps drive healthcare operations while finding creative ways to bring people together and strengthen workplace culture. With a background in communications and a zero tolerance for boring, she excels at building relationships, creating meaningful experiences, and bringing big ideas to life. Outside of work, she's cheering way too loudly for the Bobcats and proving that a surprising amount can be accomplished with flavored caffeine, a little bit of optimism and a good spreadsheet!

Isabelle Silverie,
Brand Up Promotions

Isabelle Silverie is a Montana State University graduate with a degree in Business Marketing who is passionate about building relationships and connecting with people. Originally from Carmel, California, she enjoys being involved in her community and supporting local businesses. Through her work with Brand Up Promotions, Isabelle helps companies strengthen their brands through promotional products and creative marketing solutions. She brings energy, creativity, and a people-first approach to everything she does. Outside of work, Isabelle enjoys skiing, traveling, and meeting new people.

Bill Souba,
American Bank

Bill Souba has worked in the banking industry for more years than he can count. He graduated from the University of Nebraska College of Business Administration and currently serves as Senior Vice President and Commercial Lender for American Bank in Bozeman. Before moving to Bozeman in 2010, he lived in Colorado and Nebraska. When he's not working to keep the wheels of industry properly greased, you may find him mountain biking, skiing in the backcountry, fly fishing a local stream or travelling to an international location that his mother only wants to know about after he's returned home.

Eric Sweet, CCIM,
Lamar Advertising

As a Real Estate Manager for Lamar Advertising of Montana, Eric is eager to plant roots and get involved in Bozeman. In his current role, he oversees leasing and site development and has earned the CCIM designation in Commercial Real Estate. Eric completed his undergrad at the University of North Dakota and is in the Graduate Program (MBA) at Louisiana State University. Eric's leadership aspiration is to be a deeply invested contributor in the community. His current role allows him to engage with local landowners, businesses, and non-profits in the community. By connecting with established local leaders in this program Eric hopes to learn and connect his unique background with community service, diversity, and establish roots that help build a positive image for Bozeman.

Lauren Taylor,
PureWest Christie's Intl
Real Estate

Lauren Taylor is the founder of LT Real Estate and a top-producing REALTOR® with PureWest Christie's International Real Estate, serving Bozeman, the Gallatin Valley, and both Southwest and Northwest Montana. Ranked among the top 1.5% of agents nationwide, Lauren is known for her integrity, market expertise, and unwavering commitment to exceptional client service. A Montana resident since 2001, she combines deep local knowledge with strategic marketing and skilled negotiation to help buyers, sellers, and investors achieve their goals. Guided by faith, professionalism, and genuine relationships, Lauren is passionate about helping clients confidently navigate every step of their real estate journey.

Austin Walker,
Dick Anderson Construction

Born and raised in Missoula, Montana, Austin grew up recreating on the area's many rivers, where he developed a lifelong appreciation for the outdoors. After graduating from high school, he attended Montana State University and earned a bachelor's degree in Construction Engineering Technology. Austin is now a Construction Project Manager with Dick Anderson Construction. He is looking forward to growing as a leader through this class, expanding his perspective, and learning from the experiences of others.

Jason Weathers,
Granite Technology

Jason Weathers is a Technical Consultant at Granite Technology Solutions with more than 20 years of experience helping Montana organizations navigate telecommunications and technology solutions. Since joining Granite, he has served in multiple leadership and client-focused roles. In his current role as a Technical Consultant, Jason specializes in business phone systems and IT solutions. A graduate of the University of Northern Iowa, Jason began his career with Prairie iNet before relocating to Montana and later spending nearly two decades with Bresnan/Charter Spectrum. Known for his customer-first approach and deep industry knowledge, Jason remains passionate about connecting businesses with the right technology solutions. Outside of work, he enjoys community involvement, the outdoors, and supporting his three children's activities.

Pearl moved to Bozeman from Denver and never looked back. Over the last six years she has built her career across independent downtown retail and real estate marketing, developing a deep appreciation for the people and small businesses that give this city its character. Pearl currently works as a marketing coordinator at ERA Landmark Real Estate, where she helps agents define and communicate their personal brand. She is passionate about staying connected across many corners of the community and is thrilled to be joining the Leadership Bozeman cohort this year.

Pearl White,
ERA Landmark of Bozeman

Leadership Bozeman

39 Chairs:

Wytni Spranget,
Stockman Bank

Wytni Spranget is a fourth-generation Bozemanite, Bozeman High School graduate, and avid Bobcat fan. She earned both her B.S. and M.S. in Education from the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks. After completing her degrees, Wytni returned home to Bozeman where she began a career in banking. Wytni has been with Stockman Bank for seventeen years and currently serves as Vice President of Market Operations for the Gallatin Valley. A graduate of Leadership Bozeman 25, she remains actively involved by serving as a chair. She looks forward to welcoming the participants of Leadership Bozeman 39.

Kathleen Wood,
American Bank

Kathleen Wood started her banking career over 23 years ago and enjoys building relationships with customers, helping them find solutions to their financial needs, and developing team members with a passion for community banking. She currently oversees retail banking functions and daily operations for six branches across Montana. Born and raised in the Gallatin Valley, Kathleen is a proud graduate of Montana State University where she earned her bachelor's degree in business. Go Cats! Outside of work, Kathleen enjoys camping, attempting to improve her golf skills, volunteering for Special Olympics Montana, and spending time with her family and friends.

Leadership Bozeman 39 Co-Chairs:

John Carey,
Bank of the Rockies

John Carey is Vice President of Commercial Lending at Bank of the Rockies, the oldest bank in Montana. In this role, he partners closely with business owners in Bozeman and the surrounding communities to help turn their goals into reality through tailored banking and lending solutions. Since 2013, John has been cultivating strong banking relationships throughout the region. A Montana native born in Glasgow, he has put down roots in the Bozeman community. Outside of work, John enjoys spending time with his family and taking advantage of the area's natural beauty through hiking, skiing, and other outdoor activities.

Jennifer King,
PureWest Christie's Intl Real
Estate

Jennifer King, a Montana native born in Great Falls and raised in Colstrip, comes from generations of miners, rail workers, and community builders. With 25 years in the technology industry, she earned a reputation for strategic problem-solving and exceptional client service. As a licensed REALTOR® and founder of LT Management Group, Jennifer blends local insight with tech-driven strategies to serve property owners, buyers, and vacation guests. Dedicated to excellence and authentic connections, she creates warm, personalized experiences that honor Montana's heritage and deliver lasting value to everyone she has the privilege to help.

Brenna Violet,
Mosaic Montana Real
Estate

Brenna Violet is the Founder and Broker of Mosaic Montana, with over a decade of real estate experience and a background in engineering, skills she still leans on to bring clarity to complex decisions. A Montana native and MSU grad, she's grounded in a deep love for this place and the people who make it special. She's actively involved in Bozeman schools and community initiatives, and is known for straight answers, steady guidance, and putting her clients' long-term interests first. When she's not working, you'll find her outside with her husband and two kids, making the most of life in the Gallatin Valley.