

Instructions: In the City of Salinas, every employer with fifteen (15) or more employees, every labor organization with fifteen (15) or more members, and every employment agency shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place upon the premises where notices to employees, applicants for employment, and members are customarily posted.

Discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and/or gender identity or gender expression is prohibited by law. Chapter 5, Article XIV of the Salinas Municipal Code.