Property Description

Two levels of beach holiday bliss or investment potential...

Set in an elevated position to capture coastal breezes and the gentle sounds of birdlife, this inviting east side home offers a lovely balance of space, character, outlook and lifestyle. With a peaceful and private forest backdrop to the rear of the property and ocean views from the front, it presents as a warm and welcoming family abode or perhaps an appealing investment opportunity in the sought-after beach side of town.

Enjoying the best of both worlds, the property embraces its natural surrounds while being just approximately 200 metres from the beach access track at the end of the street, perfect for morning walks, swims or relaxed sunset strolls.

From the moment you arrive, the home makes a beautiful first impression with its well-maintained gardens and lawn, raised vegetable beds and privacy screening. The sunroom entry offers a warm and graceful welcome for family and guests alike. Filled with natural light from its northern and eastern windows allowing the winter morning sun to be enjoyed, this charming space features tiled flooring, a sliding door and easy access to the single garage via a personal access door. A large internal window also creates a lovely connection through to the living room.

The living room feels instantly comfortable, with beautiful hardwood flooring, a ceiling fan and air conditioning providing year-round comfort.

Along the hallway, past the linen cupboard, you will find three light-filled upstairs bedrooms, each with hardwood flooring and ceiling fans. Two bedrooms include mirrored built-in robes, whilst the two north-facing rooms enjoy lovely natural light and tinted windows, the south-facing bedroom enjoys forest views.

The recently renovated bathroom has been beautifully finished with a relaxed coastal feel. It features a spacious shower recess with two niches and a rainfall shower head, along with a floating vanity with a timber top, barn-style door to complete this holiday vibe and refreshing southern airflow.

At the heart of the home is the divine custom-built kitchen, centrally positioned and recently renovated to a high standard. Immaculately presented and thoughtfully designed, it offers a five-burner gas stove, Miele dishwasher, timber benchtops, floating shelves, deep stainless-steel sink, built-in pantry, generous storage and servery windows overlooking the adjoining family and dining room.

The open plan family and dining area is another lovely feature, enjoying an abundance of southern and eastern light with a private bushland outlook and glimpses towards the ocean and Captain Cook Lookout. Hardwood flooring continues with its natural warmth, complemented by raked ceilings, built-in shelving and direct access to the garage.

On the lower level which is accessed via a private side pathway you will find a self-contained area which adds excellent flexibility and options. This private level would suit guests, extended family or those seeking extra space to enjoy the tranquillity of the setting. With its own private entrance, this level includes a modern eat-in kitchenette with double sink, timber benches and bushland views, combined with the laundry for practicality.

Property Description

A neat bathroom offers a shower, vanity and separate toilet, while the oversized bedroom includes air conditioning, a sitting area and direct access to the timber platform and yard.

This delightful space is currently being utilised as an Airbnb rental with self-check in, undercover outdoor sitting area, abundant native birdlife and although it has been renovated, it still contains a coastal retro vibe which is perfect for those guests who want to escape the rush of modern-day living.

Outside, the property continues to delight with under-house storage, terraced backyard, established selection of fruit trees, multiple raised vegetable gardens and a private bushland outlook. The beach access trail at the end of the street is only a short walk away, adding to the appeal of this peaceful coastal address.
