Honest Faith

Seventh week in the series: Stories of Faith
Hebrew 11:32-40

How much faith do I need to get God to answer my prayers? That's a reasonable question, but it's the wrong one. At the end of Hebrews 11, we learn that God is less concerned with the quality of our faith than he is with the honesty of our faith.

Discussion Questions:

1. Sometimes we find ourselves believing that we must have incredible faith in order for God to show up in incredible ways. Do you ever believe this? What do you think of that idea?
2. What is a particular challenge that you are currently facing or have recently faced? How would you describe your faith in the midst of this challenge?
3. Do you ever feel that God is limited by the weakness of your faith?
4. Do you ever find yourself trying to coerce God with the strength of your faith?
5. Pray: Tell Jesus about whatever quality of faith or lack of faith you currently have in him. Ask him to strengthen your faith. Then ask him to help you find him in the midst of your current challenges.
