Preacher: Dan Westman

A Prayer for the Helpless

Fourth week in the series: Teach Us To Pray

Matthew 6:12-13

Prayer is powerful, but prayer is not for the powerful. Rather, prayer is for the helpless. In the last part of The Lord's Prayer, Jesus reminds us that we are all helpless, but his power of more than enough for us.

Discussion Questions:

1. Do you ever struggle to feel forgiven and accepted by God?
2. Are there areas of your life where you are trying to change yourself in your own power? What might it look like to invite the Spirit into those area to bring about that change?
3. Do you tend to ignore the reality of the devil? Or fear him? How does Jesus' victory over the evil one impact your day-to-day life?
4. What has your experience in prayer been over the past month? What do you hope to experience in prayer going forward?
