Announcing the Announcer

First week in the series: Good News, Great Joy

Luke 1:5-23

For the season of Advent, we will be looking at announcements of the Christmas Story. As we track different proclamations of the event that is to come, we'll see how each of them communicates something unique about the Good News that leads to great joy. To start, we'll be following the story of Zechariah as he hears the announcement of John the Baptist. The announcement to Zechariah isn't about Jesus, it's about the forerunner of the Christ. This morning we'll hear about Announcing the Announcer.

Discussion Questions:

1. Where are you bruised? What's a place of tenderness in your life?
2. How have you seen God heal you in a tender place?
3. What aspect of Jesus strikes you as most compelling to our culture?
4. Share a surprising story about God reaching someone you wouldn't have expected.
5. What makes it hard for you to announce the good news of Jesus?
