The Sweetest Songs

Eighth week in the series: The Mystery of Christ
Ephesians 4:17-24

Sin has its allure. We have all heard it, felt it, and capitulated to it at least to some degree. Some have capitulated to sin in ways that changed the course of their lives—and not for the better. How do we resist sin, and what measures can we take so that we don't make choices that we can't undo?

Discussion Questions:

1. What in particular do you know about Christ that draws you to him?
2. What do you think you could do to know Christ better?
3. To “be renewed,” we must encounter the truth, and the truth is in the Scriptures. Bill Hull observes, “There is no other path to Christian spiritual transformation than through meaningful interaction with the word of God.”
4. How do you think you can meaningfully interact with the word of God?
