Seek and Find

Easter Sermon

Everyone, it seems, is looking for something. Jesus asked two men who started to follow him, “What are you seeking?” What are you looking for? Do you know? The audacious promise of the Scriptures, coming from God himself, is that those who seek him will find him. How can this be so?

Discussion Questions:

1. Jesus asked two men who started to follow him, “What are you seeking?” (John 1:38). What are you seeking?

2. The Scriptures say that God has created us so that we might seek him (Acts 17:26-27). How do you think you might go about:
  - a. Looking for God in the Scriptures?

  - b. Looking for God in the church?

  - c. Looking for God in your own life?
