The Resurrection and the Life

Fifth week in the series: I Am
John 11

In the fifth of Jesus' seven statements about himself, he addresses one of our most primal concerns: the fear of death. Jesus claims to be "the resurrection and the life" during a series of events which prove the truth of that claim. One of his closest friends has died, but Jesus goes to a funeral and performs his most spectacular miracle: Lazarus is brought back to life. As we follow this story and hear the words of Jesus, we will consider our own attitude toward life and faith in Jesus.

Discussion Questions:

1. What has been your most recent experience with death?
2. In what areas do you struggle to accept God's timing?
3. Where does it seem like your life falls short of your expectations?
4. How would you describe your faith right now? How would you like to see your faith grow or develop?
