

For the week of December 14, 2025

Preacher: Dan Westman

Salvation is Here

3rd week in the series — Love Came Down

Luke 1:57-80

Through the eyes of faith and the help of the Spirit, Zechariah rejoices in the good news that salvation has arrived in the Messiah! This salvation, better than anything we could imagine, leads to freedom, forgiveness, and a life of whole-hearted worship. Are you ready to let Jesus lead you into the freedom and worship you were made for?

Discussion Questions:

1. How does Zechariah demonstrate faith in this passage? How does his example serve as an encouragement in your faith?
2. In what ways does the salvation Jesus brings exceed or challenge the kinds of freedom we typically hope for?
3. Why do you think Scripture ties true freedom so closely to the forgiveness of sins? How have you experienced that connection personally?
4. What does “whole-hearted worship” look like in everyday life—not just on Sundays, but in habits, relationships, or decisions?
5. Which part of Jesus’ salvation—freedom, forgiveness, or deeper worship—is God inviting you to respond to most clearly in this season?