

Judge Not: Becoming People of Grace

Passage: Luke 6:37-42 | From the series: Luke

Preacher: Cormac Parker Jr. ▾

Date: For the week of Apr 26, 2026

Everyone's got an opinion. Everyone's got a verdict. We live in a world that turns comment sections into courtrooms and strangers into defendants. But what happens when the camera turns and it's your life on the screen? This Sunday, we sit with the most misquoted words Jesus ever said: "Judge not."

Discussion Questions:

1. Our world is fluent in calling things out. How has that shaped the way you judge the people closest to you?
2. Jesus says the measure you use comes back to you. Where do you most need grace right now, and are you withholding it from someone else?
3. Jesus says growth starts with honest self-examination. What are you avoiding?
4. Who have you written off lately? What would it look like to lead with curiosity instead of a verdict?
5. Jesus doesn't end with condemnation; he ends with an invitation to see clearly so you can help. Who's waiting for you to do that inner work?
