Discussion Questions:

1. What stands out to you about how Jesus chooses the twelve in Luke 6:12-16?
2. How do you try to hear from God as you discern his will? How have you found solitude helpful in this process?
3. What does Jesus' choice of twelve ordinary people teach us about his plan to save the world?
4. "Finding your people" involves relationships in three directions: learning from mentors, doing life in community, and pouring into others. Which of these areas is currently the strongest for you? Which is the weakest?
5. What would it look like for you not just to believe in Jesus, but to actively join His mission alongside others?
