No Middle Ground

Passage: Luke 11:14-36 | From the series: Luke
Preacher: Dan Westman
Date: For the sermon on Sep 6, 2026

Discussion Questions:

1. What are some ways we can respond to Jesus like the people in this passage—marveling at him, questioning him, or looking for more proof—without actually following him?

2. Jesus says, “Whoever is not with me is against me” (v. 23). What does wholehearted allegiance to Jesus look like in your life right now? Where are you most tempted to remain “neutral”?

3. Jesus warns that it is not enough for a person to have their “house swept and put in order” (vv. 24–26). What is the difference between simply removing something unhealthy from our lives and actually filling our lives with God?

4. Jesus says that those who are truly blessed are those who “hear the word of God and keep it” (v. 28). What is something God may be asking you not merely to hear, but to obey?

5. The point of this passage is to move towards a decision: choose Jesus or choose something else. What would it look like for you to choose Jesus today?
