The Kingdom of God Is Like…

Passage: Luke 13:18-21 | From the series: Luke
Preacher: Dan Westman
Date: For the sermon on Nov 1, 2026

Do you ever expect the kingdom of God to be impressive? When Jesus describes the kingdom, his answer is surprising: it's like something from the garden and something from the kitchen. Why would he choose images like these? And what might they tell us about where God is at work right now?

Discussion Questions:

1. What do you notice about the kind of images Jesus chooses to describe the kingdom in Luke 13:18-21?

2. Why do we tend to prefer a kingdom that starts big?

3. What is one small thing that you have seen grow into something large for the kingdom?

4. What makes it hard to trust God's work when we can't see it?

5. Who might you need to make space for in your life?
