No Fine Print

Passage: Luke 14:25-35 | From the series: Luke
Preacher: Dan Westman
Date: For the sermon on Nov 22, 2026

Every contract has fine print, but Jesus' terms for following him are written in bold: he wants to be number one in our lives. Before we sign on, he tells us to sit down and count the cost. As Jesus describes the cost of following him, we may find ourselves asking: is following him really worth it?

Discussion Questions:

1. Setting God aside, what matters most to you (family, career, comfort, security)? When do these compete with Jesus for first place?

2. Jesus uses a builder and a king to urge people to count the cost before they begin. Why might he want us to know the cost up front?

3. What expectations do your family, culture, or workplace have for your life? Where do they differ from what Jesus asks of you?

4. What has following Jesus cost you? What has it given you?

5. Listen to the invitation of the Spirit: Is there anything God is asking you to let go of right now for the sake of gaining Christ?
