ATTENTION OWNERS OF RENTAL OR LEASED REAL PROPERTY:

If you own real property in unincorporated Cobb County that is rented or leased to another person or entity, you are not required to pay occupation taxes or business license fees to Cobb County in connection with that property if you can provide to the Cobb County Business License Division evidence (e.g., supporting documentation or affidavits(s)) that:

- (1.) Your only activities at that property involve showing the property to prospective tenants or lessees and/or performing maintenance or repairs to such property; and
- (2.) You maintain an office or location (which is a structure or vehicle where a business, profession, or occupation is conducted and is not a temporary or construction work site which serves a single customer) outside unincorporated Cobb County but within the State of Georgia OR you provide to the Business License Division proof of payment of a local business or occupation tax in another State which purports to tax your sales or services in the State of Georgia.

If you provide evidence that you meet the above criteria, you are not required to pay Cobb County occupation taxes or business license fees in connection with your rental property. However, you may be required to register your rental property location with the Business License Division and obtain a business registration certificate at no charge.

RIGHT OF APPEAL:

All administrative decisions made by the Business License Division regarding applications for licenses, transfers, renewals, changes in ownership, or other matters affecting such licenses or occupation tax certificates, including attempts by the Cobb County Business License Division to impose or collect occupation taxes or business license fees, may be appealed to the Cobb County License Review Board. To be considered, all appeals must be submitted on appeal forms provided by the Business License Division. For more information on your right to appeal, please contact the Business License Division at (770) 528-8410 and/or consult Section 6-90 et seq. of the Official Code of Cobb County.
