EXTENDED STAY HOTELS

Some individuals who live in extended stay motels have tenant rights and should not be forced to move out without an eviction order from the Court.

- Once a resident has lived in a motel for more than 90 days, the motel is no longer an “innkeeper” under Georgia law because they do not have to pay innkeeper taxes or sales taxes anymore. See O.C.G.A. § 48-8-2(31)(B).
- The resident then becomes a “tenant” under Georgia law, and the motel/landlord should utilize the court eviction process to force the tenant to move out, regardless of whether rent has been paid. See O.C.G.A. § 44-7-50(a).
- A motel in this situation that forces a tenant to move out without obtaining an eviction order from the Court first may be liable for breaking the law.

If you are a tenant in this situation, contact Cobb Legal Aid at (770) 528-2565 to find out if you qualify to speak to an attorney to obtain legal advice about your specific situation. You may also apply for assistance at <https://atlantalegalaid.org>.

COURTS

As a reminder, the Judicial Complex, will remain open in accordance with the Judicial Emergency Order issued by the Georgia State Supreme Court. This order includes the Superior Court, Superior Court Clerk's Office, Juvenile Court, Magistrate Court, Probate Court, State Court, and the State Court Clerk's Office. To reiterate, the Judicial Branch will remain open to handle essential matters to ensure due process and to protect our community.

Cobb County District Attorney's Office

During the National Emergency as deemed by our federal, state, and county governments, the Cobb District Attorney's Office is open. However, the office is handling only essential matters such as probable cause/bond, other in custody matters, and certain juvenile matters as outlined by Chief Justice Harold Melton of the Supreme Court's Judicial Emergency Order. For office and court matters, the staff is divided into two small teams to make sure all court matters are handled each week during this emergency. We will be using these teams throughout the Judicial Emergency instead of rotating all staff into the office in a way that helps our office maximize work and minimize the spread of illness (Covid-19 or otherwise). Although, we are not scheduling appointments or having drop-in appointments, all staff may be reached at their county email addresses and county phone numbers.

Additionally, our victim advocates are working remotely to give case information, direct them to resources, and otherwise assist with lending support. The counseling project that we are doing with KSU offers counseling via telemental phone calls and they are working on providing that through video conferencing (during state of emergency).

For additional information visit <https://www.cobbcounty.org/courts/district-attorney>.

Cobb County Superior Court

No petit jurors shall report and no jury trials shall be held for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this Order. Furthermore, civil and other non-essential matters shall be limited by the courts during this 30-day period. The Superior Court suspends, tolls, extends, and otherwise grants relief from:

- A statute of limitation
- The time within which to try a case for which a demand for speedy trial has been filed
- The time within which to hold a commitment hearing
- The time within which to return a bill of indictment or accusation to bring a matter before a grand jury; and/or
- Such other legal proceedings as determined to be necessary, including calendars involving large numbers of litigants, lawyers, or other persons

For questions concerning how to handle custodial/non-custodial child visitations, parenting plans, etc. As it relates to the shelter-in-place/state of emergency orders, please contact the Superior Court.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) about Evictions during the Judicial Emergency

This is not intended to be used as legal advice. Please consult an attorney for legal advice about your individual case.

What is the judiciary’s response to the COVID-19 pandemic?

On March 14, 2020, Chief Justice Harold D. Melton of the Georgia Supreme Court issued an amended Order Declaring Statewide Judicial Emergency (“Order”). This Order declared that “courts should remain open to address essential functions.”

Are evictions an essential function?

Chief Magistrate Judge Brendan F. Murphy has determined that Dispossession matters (landlord/tenant evictions) are NOT an essential function of the Magistrate Court of Cobb County as defined by the Chief Justice’s Order. During the statewide judicial emergency—which lasts until May 13, 2020 but may be extended by the Chief Justice—all eviction matters are on hold.

Do I have to come to court during the judicial emergency for an eviction hearing?

No. All eviction hearings are cancelled. No court dates are being set. No orders are being signed nor writs of possession being granted. After the judicial emergency ends, all affected parties will be provided with notice of a new court date.

I am a landlord. Can I still file a new eviction case?

Yes, the Chief Justice’s Order does not prevent parties from filing civil actions. By law, the Magistrate Court Clerk’s Office must continue to accept civil filings. However, no hearings will be scheduled until after the judicial emergency ends.

Are new eviction actions still being served?

Magistrate Court is not directly releasing service copies to the Sheriff’s Office or private process servers. However, some process servers continue to serve new filings. Being served with a new eviction action does not mean you have to immediately move out. You are entitled to a hearing which will occur after the judicial emergency ends.

If I’m served with a new eviction during the judicial emergency, do I have to file an Answer within seven (7) days?

No. The Chief Justice’s Order “suspends, tolls, extends, and otherwise grants relief from any deadlines or other time schedules or filing requirements.” An Answer may be filed during the judicial emergency, but it does not have to be.

When do I need to file an Answer?

If you were served during the judicial emergency, you must answer within seven (7) days of the judicial emergency ending. If you were served before the judicial emergency was declared, your time to answer will be shorter based on the date of actual service. If you have questions about your deadline to respond, please contact an attorney or call Magistrate Court at (770) 528-8900.

Is the Sheriff's Office assisting in evictions during the judicial emergency?

No. The Sheriff's Office does not currently possess any eviction cases that may be acted on during the judicial emergency. Magistrate Court is not releasing any "blue slips" or writs of possession.

I am worried that I will be evicted. What should I do?

Contact a lawyer and stay in contact with your landlord or management company to determine what options may be available to you during this difficult time.

Can I make partial rent payments?

Each situation is unique. Contact an attorney, review your lease, or discuss partial payments with your landlord or management company directly.

What about foreclosures?

Magistrate Court does not handle residential property foreclosures. Please speak with an attorney or your mortgage company.

How can I get an attorney to help me?

Please call Cobb Legal Aid (770-528-2565) or the Cobb County Bar Association Lawyer Referral Service (770-424-2947) for help finding legal representation. No or low-cost options may be available.

What should I do if I have a question about an eviction case?

Please visit www.cobbcounty.org/courts/magistrate-court or call Magistrate Court at (770) 528-8900. A real person will answer the phone during normal business hours: Mon - Fri, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

You, your case, and everyone's good health matter to the Magistrate Court of Cobb County!

Status of Waste and Recycling Collection

Due to many being home, haulers are experiencing a higher than normal volume of activity. For the health and safety of the garbage hauler personnel, place vegetative waste in bags so they will not need to manually handle the items.

- Please note that haulers may soon collect recyclables with trash for both to be disposed of together. Residents will have the option to hold their recyclables until separate recycling routes are reestablished.

Specific haulers

- American Disposal
 - American Disposal Services suspended the collection of yard waste and special pickup items (BULK PICKUPS). Please make sure all household trash is secured in your cart to minimize the amount of trash employees will have to physically handle.
- Pickers
 - Suspended collection of recyclables and loose waste

Reach out to your hauler for specific information about their change in service. Also, look for mailer notices from them. For more information, visit <https://www.cobbcounty.org/keep-cobb-beautiful/waste-disposal>.

VOTING

I need to register to vote, do I still have time?

Those who are not registered to vote, or who need to change their addresses, have until May 11 to participate in the May 19 election. New voter registration and changed voter registration applications can be submitted at www.mvp.sos.ga.gov.

I need to change my address on my voter registration; what do I do?

New voter registration and changed voter registration applications can be submitted at www.mvp.sos.ga.gov.

I did not vote before the public health crisis; how do I vote?

According to the Georgia Secretary of State's Office, all of Georgia's 6.9 million active voters will soon be mailed absentee ballot request forms for the upcoming primary. Voters will choose whether they want to vote in the Democratic Party or Republican Party primary, sign their names, add 55-cent stamps and put the forms in the mail. Cobb County voters can also take a photo or scan the signed application and email it to absentee@cobbcounty.org.

Cobb County voters can also complete absentee ballot applications at www.cobbelections.org. Election officials will mail the appropriate ballot, which will be counted if it's received by the time polls close at 7 p.m., June 9. Voters who already participated in the Presidential Primary will receive ballots with other races during the election. Voters who haven't yet participated in the Presidential Primary will receive ballots that include both presidential candidates and other candidates.

What if I don't vote via absentee ballot?

People without internet or mail access, such as those experiencing homelessness; Georgians who need language assistance; and people with disabilities who rely on voting machines to cast their ballot will still be able to do so in person on the state's new voting system.

The Georgia Secretary of State is taking extra steps to limit the threat of COVID-19 at the polling place. Poll workers will receive additional resources to clean the equipment regularly. In-person voters who show up to vote in person will be instructed to maintain a safe distance when waiting to vote. These measures will protect poll workers as well.

When do we vote?

The voting calendar is available at https://sos.ga.gov/index.php/elections/elections_and_voter_registration_calendars

Where can I find a sample ballot?

A sample ballot can be found at the Secretary of State's My Voter Page at <https://www.mvp.sos.ga.gov/MVP/mvp.do>. Enter the required information to receive the sample.
