- _____ 13(a). Do you also understand that if you are found to have violated the terms of your probation, or to have committed another crime, then the Court may adjudicate you guilty, making you a convicted felon, and resentence you to the maximum punishment provided by law, although you would receive credit for the time that you have successfully completed on probation?
- _____ 14. Do you understand what you are charged with in this case?
- _____ 15. Do you understand that upon your plea of guilty that you could be imprisoned for a maximum of _____ years and/or _____ months; and a fine of up to $_____ could be imposed; and that, if applicable, the mandatory minimum sentence is _____?

- _____ 18. Has anyone made any promise or threat to you to influence you to plead guilty in this case?
- _____ 19. Do you understand that by pleading “not guilty,” or remaining silent and not entering a plea, you would obtain a jury trial?
- _____ 20. Do you understand that you may plead “Not Guilty” to the offense(s) with which you have been charged; and that if you should choose to plead “Not Guilty,” the Constitution guarantees you the right to a speedy and public trial by jury; the right to see, hear and cross-examine all witnesses called to testify against you; the right to use the power and process of the Court to compel the production of any evidence, including the attendance of any witnesses in your favor; the right to have the assistance of an attorney at all stages of the proceedings; the right to testify and offer other evidence; the right not to be forced to incriminate yourself; you would be presumed innocent; and you have the right to make the State prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt as to every essential element of the crime?

- _____ 24. Are you in fact guilty?
- _____ 25. Do you acknowledge that there is a factual basis to support the entry of the plea?
- _____ 26. Do you understand that, even if this is a negotiated plea with a sentencing recommendation, that the Court is not bound to accept that recommendation?
- _____ 27. Do you also understand that if the Court rejects the negotiated plea agreement, you would have the right to withdraw your plea before sentence is pronounced and if you do not withdraw your plea, the Court will proceed with sentencing in a similar manner as if you had pled not guilty, stood trial and been convicted by a jury?
- _____ 28. Have you been issued a Georgia Weapons Carry License or Concealed Carry Permit by any Probate Court of this State? If so, in what County was it issued? _____
